BAND OF BOYS

DELIGHTFUL CONCERT GIVEN ON PUBLIC CORNER BY TRAVELING MUSICIANS

The California State Band gave a fine concert at the corner of Brand and Broadway last evening from 7:45 to about 9, playing many popular airs and other tuneful selections. The name of the organization is rather misleading, as it is not a state institution or connected with any state school or anything of that kind. The name was adopted when the band was organized as a sort of musical club, in Oakland, in 1901, by F. E. (Doc) Mummert and in the 19 years of its existence has graduated many fine musicians and some band leaders. As the members drop out their places are filled by boys who are trained to fill the vacancies. The youngest member the band now has is 14. He plays one of the clarinets, of which there are six, including the E flat. Then there are three cornets, two trombones, two altos, bass, baritone and the drums. There are 19 in the company, which includes the manager, a boy to make the collections and the 17 players.

For 16 years the summer tours have been made. but this is the first year they have traveled south of Lindsay. This time they toured the state thoroughly, going as far south as San Diego. They will be in Alhambra today.

This band is supported by the business men of Oakland, who provide an emergency fund for these summer tours, which has never yet been drawn upon, however, the leader said, as the collections suffice to pay their way. They have been out nine weeks so far.

Tennessee to Glendale

Mr. and Mrs. John Barton and little daughter, Allie Bird, of Johnson, Tennessee, surprised Mrs. Joseph Griffin, of 205 West Acacia, today. Mrs. Barton is a cousin of Mrs. Griffin, and will be remembered in Glendale as Miss Emma Lee Weiler. The Bartons came across the country in their Marmon car, and report that they changed tires three times, and that was the only trouble that they met with. However, they were lost while on the New Mexico desert and went eighteen miles out of their way. After spending the day here, they will resume their journey to Santa Cruz, where they will visit the parents of Mrs. Barton, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Weiler.

Birthday Surprise

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Bristow of 203 East Chestnut were pleasantly surprised by a number of friends, who wished to help Mrs. Bristow celebrate her birthday. They took with them many beautiful bouquets and useful gifts, which were highly appreciated by Mrs. Bristow. In addition the guests took delicious refreshments, which were served by them. All spent a very pleasant evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hallett, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crampton and daughter Grace, Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy and Mrs. C. H. Burnham.

Temporary Residences

Permits were taken out for three temporary residences, one at 460 W. Windsor Road for E. J. Roberts, to cost $350; another at 502 North Maryland avenue, $800, for E. L. Jordan, and the third at 457 West California avenue, $600, for P. A. Goodman.

PERTINENT QUESTION

WHY HASN'T CITY SIZE OF GLENDALE SEPARATE POSTOFFICE, ASKS MR. MORSE

Glendale, Cal.,
Aug. 28, 1920.

To the Editor of the Glendale News:

It was with a great deal of gratification that the writer noted in your issue of the 27th the new census figures, showing that Glendale had made the greatest percentage gain of any of the California cities. But what the writer cannot understand is why Glendale does not have its own postmaster and not have all of its mail postmarked Los Angeles. It seems to the writer that a city of this size is entitled to have its own postmaster and get whatever advertising the post markings of mail entitles it. This is just a little food for that.

Yours truly,
S. B. MORSE,
145 S. Everett St.

BIG INDUSTRY

DAVIS-GLENDALE COMPANY IS BRANCH OF BUSINESS WITH INVESTMENT OF $1,500,000

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Davis and their son, Kenneth, who have been spending the summer in Glendale, leave today for their home in Aurora, Ill., but will return again to Glendale in December.

The Davis-Glendale Company in which Mr. Davis is interested as one of the owners is constructing a big plant on the company's twenty-acre tract in the Grand View District between the San Fernando Road and the Burbank line, just beyond the pumping station. The first unit of this plant will soon be completed.

James L. Henderson, vice-president of the company, will remain as superintendent of the Glendale branch and will reside in a new bungalow now being built at the plant.

As previously stated in the Evening News, the Davis-Glendale Company hothouses will be used for raising vegetables in winter such as cucumbers, tomatoes, etc., which can not be produced successfully in outside gardens in mid-winter even in California, large quantities having been shipped to Los Angeles from Illinois each winter for several years.

W. B. Davis has several establishments in the East with main offices at Aurora, Illinois, each branch being a separate corporation, the name of the city in which it is located being incorporated in the company name to enable them to keep records without confusion.

Mr. Davis and family have spent several winters in Glendale and decided to start a branch here to take care of their Pacific coast trade and he states that more buildings will be erected soon to produce as much as the demand will require. The buildings will be erected in separate units, the first one being the smallest (72x300 feet). These will be used later for starting plants for the much larger buildings which will be 700 feet long by 86 feet wide, all steel framework.

W. B. Davis is one of four brothers who have built and operated ten different establishments with actual investment totaling one and one-half million dollars. Some of the divisions raise cut flowers and plants, but most of the output is winter vegetables. From 25 to 50 men are employed steadily at each of the establishments.

Glendale is fortunate in securing such an industry which will undoubtedly be a very large establishment in a few years, judging from the many advantages of this location and climate and the past record of the organization.

GLENDALE IN 1900

HAD ONLY A FEW HUNDRED PEOPLE, GROWTH MARVELOUS SINCE

The Evening News having been asked what the population of Glendale was in 1900, the authority in such matters, City Clerk J. C. Sherer, was appealed to and he said that as Glendale was not incorporated as a city until 1906, her population in 1900 was counted as a part of that of the county. But he said he took the census that year of the district stretching from Garvanza to the present Burbank east limits and from the Verdugo mountains to the Los Angeles river, and the figures were 1500 for that whole district, so Glendale must have had only a few hundreds. Hence, it will be seen that the growth of this section has been simply marvelous in the last 20 years.

Follow Trail of Hay

City Marshal Stanley and Traffic Officer Trautwein did a bit of expert trailing recently that rivals one of Fenimore Cooper's stories of Indian keenness in following dfficult trails. A call from 1234 East Broadway to the effect that some alfalfa hay had been stolen and carried away, took them to that place and they found traces at once of the marauders in wisps of hay they had dropped. They followed the trail quickly, west on Broadway and across vacant lots. occasionally finding a bit of hay to assure them they were on the right scent, until they came to Colorado and Everett, where they found two boys who had each carried away an armload of the dry alfalfa to feed their rabbits. The youngsters were cited to appear in court and receive an admonition from Judge Lowe that will prevent a repetition of the theft.

ALARM OVER ANTI-JAPANESE MEASURE

PROPOSED CALIFORNIA LEGISLATION WILL CAUSE ANTI-AMERICAN SENTIMENT IN JAPAN, SAYS AMBASSADOR

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Secretary Colby has been told by Ambassador Shide Hara that the enactment of anti-Japanese legislation in California will result in a serious wave of anti-American sentiment in Japan, it was learned today.

While negotiations between Colby and Shide Hara have not been made public, it became known that both governments are alarmed over prospects of the California measure becoming law.

Ambassador Shide Hara told Secretary Colby that the proposed measure violates the spirit of the "gentlemen's agreement" between the two countries.

BOLSHEVIK ARMIES SUFFER DEFEAT

WRANGEL'S FORCES IN KUBAN DISTRICT ANNIHILATED; REDS RENEW ENERGY AT LEMBERG

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

MOSCON, Via London, Aug. 31.—General Wrangel's Bolshevik armies have suffered crushing defeats, according to the Soviet communique today. "General Wrangel's forces in the Kuban district have been completely annihilated," the statement said.

The Bolshevik communique also reported that fighting had been resumed along almost the entire Polish front.

WARSAW, Aug. 31.—The Polish official communique today said Budenny's advance guards had reached Tysovce after desperate fighting. Tysovce is fifty miles north of Lemberg, the Russian's first objective in their encircling drive against Lemberg.

The Bolsheviki have increased their counter offensive in the Lemberg region to the proportions of a major engagement, the Polish statement said.

PARIS, Aug. 31.—The Polish armistice delegates have returned to Warsaw and will resume negotiations with the Russians at Riga next week, according to a Warsaw dispatch.

STATEMENT OF CAMPAIGN FUNDS

UPHAM MAKES PUBLIC REPORT OF MONEY RECEIVED IN REPUBLICAN TREASURY

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—The Republican party's treasury has gathered a total of $1,308,820.65 in cash and pledges since the convention in June, Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican national committee, testified today before the Senate campaign fund investigating committee.

Upham said approximately $400,000 of this was, or will be, used as "state funds" and not for the work of the national committee.

Upham submitted to the committee a bound volume containing the names of 12,000 contributors since June. Of these he said eight had given more than a thousand dollars, none more than $2500.

CIVIL WAR IN IRELAND

MARTIAL LAW DECLARED IN BELFAST; RIOTING SPREADS THROUGHOUT IRELAND

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BELFAST, Ireland, Aug. 31.—Martial law was declared here at noon today following 24 hours of rioting between Orangemen and Catholics. The death list has been increased to 21, with over 200 wounded, some of them believed fatally.

The disorders are spreading throughout Ireland, according to reports here. Heavy reinforcements of British troops were being rushed here from Dublin. Virtually the entire adult population of Belfast has been drawn into civil war.

Sir Edward Carson, Ulsterite leader, today appealed to loyalists to cooperate in restoring order.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—Terence MacSwiney continued to hover between life and death today. Physicians' verdict was the same as that for the last three days—that MacSwiney cannot live but a few hours.

GAYS' HEARING SEPTEMBER 10

MURDERER OF MARSHAL NORMAN AT BURBANK CLAIMS HE KILLED OFFICER IN SELF DEFENSE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31.—Claiming that he had shot in self defense after being wounded by Deputy Marshall Robert Norman ofBurbank, Dominico Gays wa lodged in the county jail here today. Gays, with Raphael Dalo, is said by officers to have confessed killing Norman and wounding Purrier.

Preliminary hearing of charges against the two has been set for September 10.

TRACTOR SHOW NEWS

EXHIBITORS DREW LOTS YESTERDAY FOR SPACES AT VERDUGO WOODLANDS

Events are moving rapidly in Tractor Show matters, both in Los Angeles and at the Glendale end of the line. The local Ways and Means Committee is to meet tonight to review the situation and plan definite work. In Los Angeles, yesterday, exhibitors who have listed reservations at Verdugo Woodlands at the office of A. W. Hudson, secretary of the Tractor and Implement Dealers' Association of Southern California, 169 North Los Angeles street, drew lots for selection of exhibition space.

The drawing of numbers from the hat, each slip bearing the location of the exhibit, was in order of the greatest to the least reservation. O. C. Johnson, Los Angeles manager for the Oliver Chilled Plow Works, was first to draw. Mr. Johnson also represented the L. M. Railsback Company in making his selection. He was followed in order by the B. Hayman Company, J. I. Case Company and William L. Hughson Company.

Representatives of nearly 100 exhibitors, comprising the majority of the more prominent manufacturers and distributors of tractors, trucks and implements, were present at the drawing. It is expected that within a few days all the remaining space of the 300,000 square-foot plot in the Woodlands will have been reserved for the show.

New Bungalow Court

The new bungalow court just started at 609 North Orange is "something different" in design and construction. While there will be 10 distinct 4-room living apartments only three buildings will be constructed. Along either side of the lot, facing in, will be long bungalows of four 4-room apartments each, with dead walls separating the apartments so that they will be as completely isolated one from the other as if they were separate buildings. Back of these, set across the lot and facing the front, will be another bungalow but it will have two 4-room apartments, only. The grounds will be beautified, and a home-like atmosphere created. Mr. Babcock, the designer and builder, has been a resident of Glendale for some time and realizes the insistent need of new homes, so he and his partner, Mr. Weeks, recently from Boston, Mass., have set out to do their bit toward supplying this want, and this court is but the beginning of their building activities, Mr. Babcock says.

PHILATHEA CLUB

HOLDS REGULAR MONTHLY BUSINESS MEETING AT FIFE HOME

The Philathea Club of the Presbyterian Church held their regular monthly business meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Morgan Fife, 517 North Jackson street, on Monday evening, Mrs. Nelson, vice-president, presiding. Interesting reports were read by the standing committees and approved by those present.

Mrs. J. M. Blankenship gave a most interesting talk on Sadhu Shundar Singh, the Apostle of the Bleeding Feet, as he is called, from India, who is making a tour of this country. This disciple goes about his missionary work barefooted and many times during the cold months the blood from his bruised feet leaves its mark on the roadway, and his followers know that Apostle Paul of India has traveled through their district. He has traveled all over Europe and is now in the East, making a tour of the country. Mrs. L. W. Richardson gave a splendid talk on the Bible Institute work being carried on in Belgium. This work has just begun, and the report of its success is most encouraging, both to the workers who are endeavoring to help the people in Belgium, as well as to those at home who have contributed in various ways to this splendid work. Mrs. H. H. Van Loan gave a splendid and instructive, as well as interesting talk, on missionary work, which was much appreciated by those present. The meeting was a success in every way, and those present report a delightful and profitable evening. The hostess at the close of the meeting served dainty refreshments, after which followed a social hour.

IOWANS COMING

MARSHALLTOWN PAPER ADMITS EXODUS FROM STATE WILL BE GREATEST EVER THIS YEAR

Archie Parker of the Quality Grocery spent his early life in Marshalltown, Iowa, and was a resident of that city till he came to Glendale a few years ago. He still keeps in touch with the old home by taking the daily Times-Republican of that city. He says that paper has been distinctly hostile in many of its comments on California and rather disposed at all times to minimize the attractions of this land of flowers and sunshine, as well as to discount the number of Iowa residents who deserted that state for the Pacific slope. Hence, he was considerably surprised to read, in a recent issue of this conservative journal, the following statement, which but coincides with expressions heard and read in many other cities of the East and which warn us to prepare, with all the new buildings possible, for the coming avalanche of visitors:

The winter of 1920-21 may be known in history to be written in future years as the period of the exodus from Iowa. The Hawkeye colony in California the coming winter will be over crowded. Because of the high cost of fuel many Iowans are said to be planning to close their homes or rent them furnished for the winter months and emigrate to sunnier climes. The great majority have selected California as their temporary home. Early reservations for California trips have already been so numerous that railroad men predict the largest coast business in history. "California can not handle the tourists this winter," declared one railroad officer. "The rush west this winter will be so great that the tourists probably will be obliged to scatter up and down the Pacific coast to secure accommodations." California enjoyed an unusual season last winter but the rush this year is expected to be greatly in excess of that of twelve months ago. Just how much greater it will be railroad men have declined to predict, aside from venturing a guess that it will break all former records.

Pittsburg Men Here

W. B. Hanna and Joseph Charles, both of Pittsburg, Pa., are visiting with Ralph Goodman, of the City Engineering Force, at his home on Maple street. They were former business associates in Pittsburg. Both Mr. Hanna and Mr. Charles are very enthusiastic about California and say that the beauty of the country exceeds their expectations, and they have fully decided to make this state their residence at some future time. Mr. Goodman has been taking his friends to the various beaches and amusement parks in this vicinity and they have also made a trip to Catalina. Mr. Hanna and Mr. Charles came out over the Union Pacific through Salt Lake, and will return tomorrow evening by way of the Santa Fe.

Form New Firm

Harry R. Goodwin, who has been a resident of Glendale since 1906, and who has been connected with the sales department of A. K. Brauer & Co., tailors, of Los Angeles, for 14 years past, has formed a partnership wth Frank J. Sherman of the Atwater tract, who has been with the same firm as cutter and designer during the past six years, under the firm name of Goodwin & Sherman. They are located at 704 South Spring street and cordially invite their many Glendale friends to call there and see them.

DARING WOMEN

HOWN DRIVING S X ACROSS MOJAVE DESERT AT CHAMBERS & FELTS SHOWROOM

"Buck-a-roo-ing" a motor car rough the sand dunes and rocks the Mojave Desert, as shown by e "Trail of the Arrow" motion pictres at Essex agency last night, is ne of the most thrilling scenes of otor car driving ever shown to the ublic of Southern California. This as evidenced by the increasing owds who accepted the invitation Chambers & Felts to see this darg drive at 228 South Brand boulerd where the pictures have been own.

From the first moment that the am of light comes from the procting room, this picture is one conuous thrill until the final scene here the S X Arrow catapults ckward down the 85 per cent slope d finally lands at the bottom of e Devil's Punch Bowl, two minutes fore the time limit in the wager $1,000, which was won by the two ung girls who made the daring ve.

Never before has anything like it en attempted in this country, and hundreds who have seen "The ail of the Arrow" this week at the esrooms of Chambers & Felts realthe terrific punishment the S X tor car can stand. The thrilling ve is such an evidence of deadable construction that Essex Mocars at once assume leadership in ver, performance and economy of ration. Mr. Chambers and Mr. ts are receiving the congratulans of their friends, not only at the wing of these pictures, but at the that they have the agency for h a dependable and popular car.

The questions of the hour are enly too slow for persons who are ng to live up to the minute.

TRIP TO BIG BASIN

EMERYS AND MISS LUSBY TRAVEL 1300 MILES—SEE BIG TREES

Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery and Miss Waunita of 329 North Kenwood street and Miss Margaret Lusby of 404 North Jackson street have returned from their vacation trip. They motored to Berkeley in Mr. Emery's new machine. While up north Mr. and Mrs. Emery and daughter were the guests of Mrs. Emery's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Smith, and Miss Lusby was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Latter of Oakland. They took many interesting side trips while there. One of the nicest trips was to the Big Basin to see the big trees. Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Smith, Harold Latter and Miss Margaret Lusby accompanied them. They were at the Big Basin four days. The scenery and the big trees were wonderful. It was so cold they could see their breath night and morning, a delightful change from the hot weather that prevailed at Glendale when they left. They have been gone for two weeks and traveled about 1300 miles.

Fiction Opportunities

The wonder is that writers of fiction, so palpably agonized to produce new fantasies with apparent basis of fact, have not seized avidly upon the myriad phenomena of prohibition, or American phenomena under the operation of prohibition enactments. Every other field has been combed over, utilized, fertilized, harvested, worked to barrenness.

Even the great war, so rich a theme for a long time for storymongers, good, poor and intolerable, has been ravaged to an extreme, and nearly all the publishing purveyors of its tragedies, romances, comedies and deviltries in fiction have cried enough. So with the detective cult, buried treasure, the aspiring country girl lost in the city's maelstrom, the gentleman burglar, the haunted castle, the captive heroine, airplane and submarine adventure, and all the other hackneyed throes and bablings, ad nauseam.

Prohibition ambuscades and escapades, bootlegging, smuggling, moonshining, private stills, national and international devices to evade the law which often exhibit a quality of real genius in devising and executing, are innumerable, marvelous of intention, infinite of variety, involving all elements of drama, comedy, romance and tragedy; and apparently the thrilling moving picture of daring and evasion and heart-throbbing expectation is little further advanced than the prologue.

Contraband is being shot under waters of the Great Lakes in torpedoes and the surface is dotted thick with all kinds of launches engaged in smuggling liquor from Canada. Beverages banned in the United States are brought from Cuba, Central America and Mexico by yachts, sea-going tugs, airplanes and Rio Grande canoes. The cup that exhilarates and inebriates is brewed and distilled in cave and desert, cellar and attic, valley and mountain fastness, and an army of 75,000 persons is employed by the government to suppress this making and trafficking.

Population Figures

Our near neighbor, Alhambra, is rejoicing over an increase of 81.2 per cent in population since 1910 and now has 9096 inhabitants, making it the seventh city in size in the county. Glendale is fifth, being exceeded in population by Los Angeles, Long Beach, Pasadena and Santa Monica. Los Angeles county now has a greater population than several of the states of the union, among them Nevada, Wyoming, Delaware and Rhode Island. In 1860, just 60 years ago, the population of Los Angeles county was 4000. Now it is nearly a million.

Some persons seem to have the idea that one cannot be in sympathy with Ireland unless he is swinging a shillalah.

Even a barber might be able to tell a man a few things that would be good for him.

In these days of so much work to do there is really not much excuse for there being so many innocent bystanders.

THAT'S WHAT WE HAVE BEEN TELLING YOU

AUTO RUN AT LOSS, SAYS CITY EMPLOYE

The Board of Public Works yesterday referred to the City Council a communication from Carl R. Williams, an employe of the health department, showing that the actual present cost of operating privately owned cars by city employes who use the same in connection with their work for the city of Los Angeles amounts to 8.73 cents per mile, while under the ordinance now in force, they are allowed but 5.25 cents per mile, and it is alleged that as a result they lose between $1 and $2 per day. —L. A. Examiner, Aug. 13.

"UNCLE SAM" says it cost him from 8c to 14c per mile, dependent on the kind of machine, and he tried out 38 of them during 1919 and it costs more now. . . . . .

Our rate for travel costs you about 3c per mile for the occasional trip and about 1c per mile for the daily commutation. Can you afford to drive your own car often?

"Chairman" Campaign

Those who remember the scene in that old play, "The County Chairman," in which the backwoods campaign director disposes of a candidate's scruples with the pompous announcement, "You are only the candidate," will not be surprised at reports of the coming early resignation of George White from the chairmanship of the Democratic national committee.

Chairman Cummings, after being the chief oratorical figure at the San Francisco convention, was unceremoniously dumped to make room for one whose mind would go along more smoothly with that of Governor Cox. Chairman White thereupon was proclaimed by Democratic organs to be a second Colonel House, a most intimate guide, philosopher and friend of Governor Cox, who would sagaciously and faithfully steer him to victory.

And the very first time Chairman White opened his mouth to talk for publication he proceeded to put his foot in it. "Oh, you want to know about the League of Nations, eh?" he remarked to the newspaper boys at Washington. "Well, we don't hear much about the league any more out in Ohio. It's not going to be the prominent issue of this campaign." Pressed as to what would be the paramount issue, Mr. White replied with delightful vagueness that it would be "progressiveism."

The next morning the New York Times and other Democratic organs hastened to rebuke Mr. White for his crime not only of heresy, but of lese majeste. But they were entirely too hard on Mr. White. It was a mistake of the head and not of the heart. The chairman and friend of Candidate Cox no doubt, had heard his chief remark in the confidence of the council chamber that he hoped to goodness the league would not be made the issue, for he knew he couldn't win on it against the overwhelming opinion of the American people. And Mr. Cox's wish became the father of Mr. White's unjudiciously spoken thought. But Candidate Cox, now thouroughly up against the issue, is doing his level best to be all things to all men. He told President Wilson at that historical Sabbath morning meeting that he was for the Wilsonian covenant. And he has since told others that he is for the covenanant with reservations.

In the meantime Chairman White has been floundering around in a maze of doubts and contradictions. He is for the Wilson covenant on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and in favor of reservations on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. And on Sunday he tries to regain his mental equilibrium by taking the rest cure. Now, poor man, he wants to quit his job before the campaign has got fairly started. Like Colonel House he has tired of trying to serve a chief with a weathervane mind.

After he retires, one of these days, Mr. White should take a run down to Washington or up to Watertown, N. Y., and have a good, long, sympathetic chat with ex-Secretary Lansing. It might do him good.

The New Danger

"Sister," said the deacon, severely, "you should avoid even the appearance of evil."

"Why, deacon, what do you mean?" asked "Sister."

"I observed that on your sideboard you have several cut glass decanters, and that each of them is half filled with what appears to be ardent spirits."

"Well, now, deacon, it isn't anything of the kind. The bottles look so pretty on the sideboard that I filled them half way with some floor stain and furniture polish, just for the sake of appearance."

"That's why I'm cautioning you, sister," replied the deacon. "Feeling a trifle faint, I helped myself to a dose from the big bottle in the middle."

Let's Go

The clock struck nine. I looked at Kate,
Her lips were rosy red.
"At quarter after nine, I mean
To steal a kiss," I said.

She cast a roguish glance at me,
And then she whispered low,
With quite her sweetest smile, "The clock
Is fifteen minutes slow!"

Sometimes a man can save a lot of money by limiting his political ambitions to the office of constable.

Quite a lot of persons would be willing to practice thrift if they did not have to give up their pet indulgences.

That any neglect, failure or refusal to comply with any of the conditions of said franchise shall thereupon immediately ipso facto effect a forfeiture thereof, and the said City, by its Board of Trustees, may thereupon declare said franchise forfeited, and may exclude said grantee or his or its successors or assigns from further use of the highways of said City under said franchise; and said grantee or his or its successors or assigns shall thereupon and immediately surrender all rights in and to the same, and said franchise shall be deemed and shall remain null, void and of no effect.

Notice is hereby given that sealed bids in writing will be received at the office of the City Clerk of said City of Glendale for said franchise up to 8:30 o'clock in the afternoon of the 30th day of September, 1920.

That the bids received will be opened at that time; that all bids must be for the payment of a stated sum in gold coin of the United States; and that the franchise will be struck off, sold and awarded to the person, firm or corporation who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, provided only, that at the time of opening said bids, any responsible person, firm or corporation, present or represented, may bid for said franchise a sum not less than ten per cent above the highest sealed bid therefor, and that said bid so made may be raised not less than ten per cent by any other responsible bidder, and said bidding may so continue until finally said franchise shall be struck off, sold and awarded by said Board of Trustees to the highest bidder therefor in gold coin of the United States, and provided further that the Board of Trustees reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Each sealed bid must be accompanied with cash, or a certified check payable to the City Treasurer of the City of Glendale for the full amount of said bid, and no sealed bid will be considered unless said cash or check is enclosed therewith; and the successful bidder must deposit at least ten per cent of the amount of his bid with the Clerk of said City before said franchise will be struck off to him, and if he shall fail to make such deposit immediately his bid will not be received and will be considered as void and said franchise will then and there be again offered for sale to the bidder who shall make the highest cash bid therefor, subject to the same conditions as to deposit as above mentioned. Said procedure will be had until said franchise is struck off, sold and awarded to a bidder who shall make the necessary deposit of at least ten per cent of the amount of his bid, as herein provided. Said successful bidder shall deposit with the City Clerk within twenty-four hours after the acceptance of his bid the remaining ninety per cent of the amount thereof, and in case he or he fails to do so, then the said deposit theretofore made will be forfeited and the award of said franchise will be void, and said franchise will then and there, by the said Board of Trustees, be again offered for sale to the highest bidder therefor, in the same manner and under the same restrictions as hereinbefore provided, and in case said bidder fails to deposit with the City Clerk the remaining ninety per cent of his bid within twenty-four hours after its acceptance, the award to him of said franchise will be set aside, and the deposit theretofore made by him will be forfeited and no further proceedings for the sale of said franchise will be had until the same shall be readvertised for sale.

Notice is also hereby given that the successful bidder for said franchise must, within five days after said franchise is awarded to him of it, file with the said Board of Trustees a bond running to said City in the penal sum of One Thousand ($1000) Dollars with at least two good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by said Board of Trustees conditioned that said bidder will construct said pipe lines and shall well and truly observe, fulfill and perform each and every term and condition of said franchise, and that in case of any breach of condition of said bond, the whole amount of the penal sum therein named shall be taken and deemed to be liquidated damages and shall be recovered from the principal and sureties upon said bond. If said bond be not so filed, the award of said franchise will be set aside, and any money paid therefor will be forfeited. The Board of Trustees reserve the right to grant similar franchise over said street to any other person or company.

To a Little Hand

Last night I held a little hand,
So dainty and so neat,
I thought my heart would burst with joy
So wildly did it beat.
No other hand unto my soul
Could greater solace bring
Than what I held last night, which was Four aces and a king.

It takes a lot of nerve these days for a man to vow he will not shave until his candidate is elected.

Increase in the cost of raisins is said to have been caused by the drought—but not the kind produced by the weather.

Vote on War Memorial

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 31. (United Press.)—Financing of two great civic projects, a war memorial auditorium and a coliseum, was being considered by Los Angeles citizens today, voting on a proposed $5,000,000 bond issue.

The first of the two issues on the primary ballot calls for the erection of a memorial auditorum to cost $4,100,000 and to contain 13,451 seats, or one for every Los Angeles man enlisting in the army, navy or marine corps during the World War. The second project proposes erection of a Coliseum in Exposition Park to cost $900,000 and to seat 75,000 persons, to be used for entertainments and athletic contests.

The citizens' committee, backer of both projects, declared both will be passed by large majorities.

"The war memorial auditorum will be the nation's greatest war memorial," Sylvester L. Weaver, chairman of the committee, declared. "It will house headquarters for war veterans organizations, civic community centers, and convention headquarters.

"The coliseum will be the world's largest amphitheater, and will provide a perfect place for staging the next Olympiad," Weaver sad.

Plans are already under way to bring the 1924 Olympic games to this city, he said.

Between Friends

"I understand you said I didn't have enough sense to come in out of the rain."

"I did not."

"What did you say, then?"

"Merely remarked to a friend of ours that if there was a tax on brains the government would owe you money."

Scratch as Cats Can

Two cats, having fallen out, decided to have a duel. "Before we proceed," said one, "let us have a clear understanding."

"What now?" asked the other.

"Is this a duel to the death?" asked the first cat, "or shall we have a world series and make it the best five lives out of nine?"

COMING INTO HIS OWN

Perhaps the world has not given to the lazy man the credit he deserves for the progress that has been made toward the ideal life. It is coming to be known, when the lazy man is considered dispassionately, that some of the important inventions are the result of his disinclination to work.

For example, there is the riding cultivator, which is said to be the product of the ingenuity of a man who was sure that his legs were never intended to drag after a hand implement. Not only does a man ride in cultivating now, but he gets much more work done. There is not much to be said about the man who refuses to do any work at all, but the man who is just lazy enough to do his work in the easiest way has been able to hit upon many ideas that have added to the sum total of human efficiency.

Many devices that have contributed so largely to production may be traced to the desire of some individual to save himself from unnecessary physical effort. Many an inventor who has a reputation for industry may have had only a commendable kind of laziness. It may not be too late for the world to capitalize its lazy men.

HARDING WOULD PROTECT RESOURCES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

Developing Potash

By CARL D. GROAT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, Aug. 10. (By Mail.)—The German "Kalisyndikat"—the syndicate under government direction supervising Germany's vast potash business—has been trying dictatorial methods on American business people.

The result is that American business is practically saying to the Kalisyndikat, "Go hang; we'll develop most of our own potash."

And, American potash buyers are suiting their actions to their words. Consequently, the outlook at present is that the American market will not absorb more than $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 worth of German potash a year as against five to ten times as much were the syndicate in a conciliatory mood.

The clash between American consumers and German producers dates back to the period just before the Kapp coup. The American buyers had contracted for a vast quantity of potash—understood to be around $40,000,000 worth. Then came Kapp and upset industry and the government. Subsequently, the workers in the potash fields held that they wanted more money, making fulfillment of the contract at the original price impossible.

Since then, negotiations have been underway toward arrangement of a new contract. But, the Americans have found that the syndicate itself was inclined to be dictatorial. In fact, one of the interested parties told the writer:

"Many of the men in the syndicate are kaiser appointees. And, I can tell you that the kaiser himself in his palmiest days was never more dictatorial than those men in the syndicate. As a result of their attitude, America is turning her efforts to development of its own potash resources. Sources on which work was halted directly after the war are again starting up, especially since consumers have guaranteed a minimum price of $2 a unit for the next five years. This relieves us of the German domination, and makes it possible to take a much smaller quantity than would otherwise be the case. They thought they had us on the hip, but that is not the case."

Potash is one of the vital products in fertilization. Germany has hitherto had a grip on the world's market, but the stimulus given the American industry by the arbitary position of the syndicate is loosening that grip.

Will Resort Close?

MEXICALI, Lower California, Aug. 31. (United Press.)—Will the "Owl," famous resort here, close its doors for the last time at midnight tonight?

That was the question professional gamblers, hangers-on at the international line and many others were trying to answer today.

Opinion was divided and in the absence of official announcements no one knew what would happen.

Governor Luis M. Salazar, the new chief executive of Lower California, recently ordered the Owl to close at the expiration of its license for the month of August. Since then, however, seemingly reliable reports have been circulated that the owners of the Owl have secured a new five-year concession.

So only the stroke of midnight tonight will tell whether the roulette wheels are to continue to spin and whether fortunes will continue to be won—and lost.

Immigrants Pouring In

Immigrants at the rate of more than 70,000 a month are pouring in. The stream, already a swollen one, is rising. The officials expect upwards of a million arrivals during the next 12 months. The biggest year the United States ever saw brought 1,400,000 to these shores, and then there were plenty of ships. Now there are not sufficient accommodations to supply the demands, but there soon will be.

Where are all these people coming from? Who are they? What are their qualifications?

These are questions which Congress at its next session should put straight up to the immigration authorties and insist upon truthful answers.

We need able-bodied men with clean minds in reasonable numbers. Such we can put to work and assimilate. Of the other kind—the vicious, the disciples of Bolshevism, the preachers of anarchy and the believers in revolution—we already have more than enough.

The recent laws were enacted to keep all such out. Are they doing it? Or are the laws loosely applied? For it is almost impossible to believe that of the nearly 2500 men and women who are landing every day on an average all can be desirable.

Old World countries are hot-beds for radicals of all sorts. Against these breeds the bars must be raised. We were taught a lesson by the war and we ought to profit by it. Men who want to work and who desire in good fath to become citizens of the United States are welcome. But none others.

The great and growing wave of immigration needs the careful attention of Congress.

Jap Ruler Ill

TOKYO, Aug. 1. (By Mail.)—While for some years the poor health of the emperor Yoshibito has been the subject of serious concern to his subjects, and while it has often been rumored that he was far more seriously ill than proved to be the case, it is evident that during recent weeks his condition has become fairly serious.

During the past week rumors have several times had it that the emperor had died. Such reports gain credence owing to the fact that in Japan the death of an illustrious person is often concealed for many days. One of the first indications that matters were becoming serious was the announcement that the Lady Aiko Yangahara Niino Tsubone, the emperor's mother, has gone to the great shrine at Ise, to pray for his health. One daring newspaper even stated that the emperor was suffering from brain trouble, as has been quite generally reported, but this paper was very soon visited by the police. It is understood that it has been warned that a second offense of this kind will result in its suspension for good.

In the meantime the emperor returned to Tokyo from the country, with the expectation of going to Nikko at the end of July, as he generally spends the summer at his villa there. The fact that he was not able to carry out the program was probably what led to the announcement being made by the imperial household to the effect that the emperor "has been" seriously ill, but is now recovering. It adds that he is suffering from glucoria, "hip gout," nervous trouble and difficulty of speech. While the official announcement speaks hopefully of his improvement and probable speedy recovery, it is quite generally believed that his illness has taken a serious turn, and the worst news would come as no surprise to the thinking elements.

Deaths Exceed Births

The city of Monrovia had 81 more deaths than births in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1920, there having been 198 deaths and 117 births. This very unusual state of affairs in a California city is accounted for by the fact that Monrovia has several institutions that undertake the cure of patients who are very ill, particularly tuberculosis cases, and many of these are too far gone for aid when they arrive.

HOW WILL WOMEN VOTE?

There was bound to be considerable speculation as to the effect admission of women to suffrage would have on election results. But the problem might be more mystifying than it is, had not women in 12 states voted for president four years ago. Since then other states have admitted them to partial or full suffrage so that it is estimated that 17,000,000 women would have had the right of presidential suffrage had not the Eighteenth amendment been ratified. Under the suffrage amendment it is estimated that 27,000,000 will be eligible to cast their ballots.

It has not been found that admission of women to suffrage has revolutionized the politics of any state. In most cases it has merely emphasized the previous political trend. In fact the matter of deciding political affiliation is much more of a family matter, and properly, than might be suspected. There are instances, doubtless, where the family divides politically, but as a rule the adult members of a family are of one mind politically.

The Eighteenth amendment was based on the ground that it would accord to women what is and has been their right. That it should be expected to operate to reverse political tendencies is not indicated by its operation in the states where women have long exercised the right of suffrage. By reasoning or intuition the wife is likely to find herself reaching the conclusion as to the proper course in political action that the husband has arrived at by similar means. What is the political reasoning and interest of one member of a family is likely to prove the interest of all.

No doubt the influence of women at the ballot has been expressed forcibly heretofore and the most marked difference to be observed will be in the increase in the number of ballots cast.

FOR THE FULLER LIFE

Interest in physical education is growing. Everywhere physical culture colleges and so-called life extension institutes are springing up.

All will agree that this attention to hygiene and physical training is an excellent thing. But it seems odd that so many should lay stress on physical culture merely as a means of prolonging life.

The value of physical education in extending life is, after all, only incidental. Its real merit is in making life worth living.

A general extension of the period of life is of interest mainly to the actuary. More appealing to the average men or women is the new zest in life that comes from physical training and health culture. It is less the desire to live longer than to live more fully that is increasing the ranks of the physical culturists.

A hearty appetite, a perfect digestion, a 100 per cent efficient liver, a clear brain and a general physical exhiliration—given these as the reward of physical culture, no one worries much about the problem of life extension.
